

Child Support Calculator

On-line child support calculators are notoriously inaccurate. Call our office and talk with an attorney to understand your child support case. Because on-line calculators are so bad, we don't offer one on our website. Your case is unique. The facts about you, your spouse, your children, and the family's situation are all unique. Illinois' percentage guidelines are just that – guidelines – they are not automatically applied in every case. There are many factors that should be considered in every case. A calculator cannot do it effectively.

Call our office and talk with one of our skilled and experienced attorneys. We'll go through all the facts, look at your situation and that of your former spouse, and help you find the child support amount that will work best in your case. No on-line calculator and come close to the attention and service you'll receive from our attorneys.

Call us. We have the knowledge, expertise, and resources you'll need to properly resolve your support issue. There's no charge and no obligation.

This article was written by the law office of Cowell Taradash, P.C., whose attorneys are familiar with the latest court decisions, recent changes in the law and even the tendencies of many judges. We can help. Contact us at 866.987.6723 or info@illinoisdivorce.com.